

The LONGWOOD
CENTER for the
VISUAL ARTS

129 North Main Street
Farmville, Virginia 23901

The Longwood Center for the Visual Arts Community Achievement in the Arts Awards honor those who have made significant, selfless, and ongoing contributions to the development of the arts in Southside Virginia, including Amelia, Appomattox, Buckingham, Charlotte, Cumberland, Lunenburg, Nottoway, and Prince Edward Counties. Such contributions to the visual, performing, or literary arts may include work in areas such as:

- festivals and events
- program development
- volunteering
- presentations, workshops, lectures
- youth and/or adult services
- educating, advocating, mentoring
- music or theatre

Nominations will be accepted through March 1, 2019, via e-mail at lcvainfo@longwood.edu or the LCVA located at 129 N. Main St, Farmville. Awardees will be selected by the CAA Nominating Committee and approved by LCVA Executive Director. You may submit multiple nominations, and self-nomination is allowed. Previous awardees will be considered if their award was received before 2008 (this list can be found at <http://lcva.longwood.edu/engage>). If you have any questions, please contact Noelle Prince Shear, Chair, CAA Nominating Committee at noelles@hsc.edu or call 434-395-2390. The CAA award ceremony will be held on Friday, April 26, 2019, at the LCVA.

Now's your opportunity to shine the spotlight on a deserving nominee! Using a separate page, please describe how the nominee has contributed to the arts in their community. What has been the effect of their contributions? How has the community benefitted from the nominee's work and talents? Does the nominee have any additional experience or accomplishments you'd like to share?

Thank you for the opportunity to review deserving nominees for the Community Achievement in the Arts Award!
