

LONGWOOD CENTER for the VISUAL ARTS
presents:

LCVA invites you to join us this summer to explore and create beautiful works of art inspired by some of your favorite children's literature old and new!

June 11-August 3

every Monday-Friday

Closed Wednesday July 4th

Drop in any time between 11:00am-2:00pm at the LCVA, on the corner of 3rd Street and Main Street in historic downtown Farmville.

This program is completely free!

no registration required • children must be accompanied by an adult

Summer Art Studio also features little artists areas for children ages 4 and younger

129 N Main St, Farmville, VA 23901
(434)-395-2206 • lcvainfo@longwood.edu
www.lcva.longwood.edu

made possible through the generous support of

Walmart

You Wear it Well! | June 11–June 22

Why do we wear what we wear? No matter the weather, our daily dress is a choice! Let your fashion sense take over as you create your own new threads!

Featured Books: The Emperor's New Clothes, Happy Birthday Madame Chapeau, Extra Yarn, I Like Old Clothes

Taking it to the Beach! | June 25–July 6 (LCVA closed Wednesday July 4)

Wide and deep, oceans and beaches call us to dive into the worlds of seashore and sealife! Tie Dye (Please bring one laundered t-shirt to tie-dye. Shoe strings will be available.)

Featured Books: Hello Lighthouse, Flotsam, The Antlered Ship, This is Not My Hat, Vampirina Ballerina at the Beach

Mission POSSIBLE! | July 9–July 20

What lies beyond our planet? Space exploration ignites our imagination. Let's venture into the creative atmosphere of galactic proportions by peering into outer space!

Featured Books: A Poem for Peter, The Wonderful Things You Will Be, We All Sing with the Same Voice, Firebird, The Name Jar

Up! Up! And Away! | July 23–August 3

Is it a bird? A jet? A Plane? Come soar with us as we consider the mysteries and wonder of flight: Winged creatures that delight and entertain us and human engineered machines that defy logic!

Featured Books: Feathers are not Just for Flying, Stellanuna, Hot Air, Butterfly Time, Flight School