JILL KRUTICK

NATURE REIMAGINED
Exhibitions

Jill Krutick: Nature Reimagined

Jill Krutick: Nature Reimagined is an exploration of time, scale, and self-discovery. At once abstract and representational, Krutick's art is also a joyful reflection of color, form, and memory. Pulling from individual challenges and triumphs, Krutick reimagines the natural world into personal and inviting compositions filled with texture and emotive gestures that deftly interlace the earth, sea, sky, flora, and fauna with paint, canvas, and a brush.

This exhibition is generously sponsored by Yok Attack.

On view through 8 August 2021.

A modified reception is planned for Friday 18 June from 5 to 8 P.M.

Main Street Museum: Virginia Landscapes and Sites

Main Street Museum: Virginia Landscapes and Sites, drawn from the museum's permanent collection, considers the Commonwealth's abundant and diverse beauty, its cosmopolitan and historic cities, and its wide-ranging natural landscapes. Familiar urban landscapes complement—much as with the serenity and awe of Virginia's popular Blue Ridge Mountains and the coastal areas. Maps and GPS coordinates are included alongside each work so that visitors may carry their exhibition experiences with them to the original site.

On view through 15 August 2021.

Folk Beasts

Folk Beasts explores the magical and diverse creatures celebrated in folkloric throughout time. Hart Club is an organization dedicated to championing neurodiversity in the Arts through work with various charities and organizations that spotlight artists who thrive, communicate, and create differently. www.hartclub.org

The Golden Thread Project aims to popularize folklore through collaboration with artists, writers, and musicians in an effort to connect new generations to folklore and myth and the university of human experience they share. www.thegoldenthreadproject.com
