What is a zine? To find out, grab this free packet to learn how you can create your own self-published creative works.

Looking for more creative art projects? Be sure to check out the LCVA's online story times and art making tutorials. These and more fun educational resources will be available on the LCVA's website lcva.longwood.edu, Facebook, Instagram, and Pinterest.

Page Turners ART-ON-THE-GO bags are part of the LCVA's collaboration with the Virginia Children's Book Festival. The VCBF offers a number of free educational online programs through the entire month of October! To learn more about these programs, visit vachildrensbookfestival.org.

LCVA is the art museum of Longwood University. Located in historic downtown Farmville, LCVA serves as a physical and cultural bridge between the university and our community at large. It is the only museum of its kind, scope, and size in the area surrounding our home base, Prince Edward County. Our commitment to improving the quality of life in the region by providing full access to the visual arts is the heart of our mission. The LCVA is open Tuesday-Saturday 11am-5pm and Sunday 1-5pm.

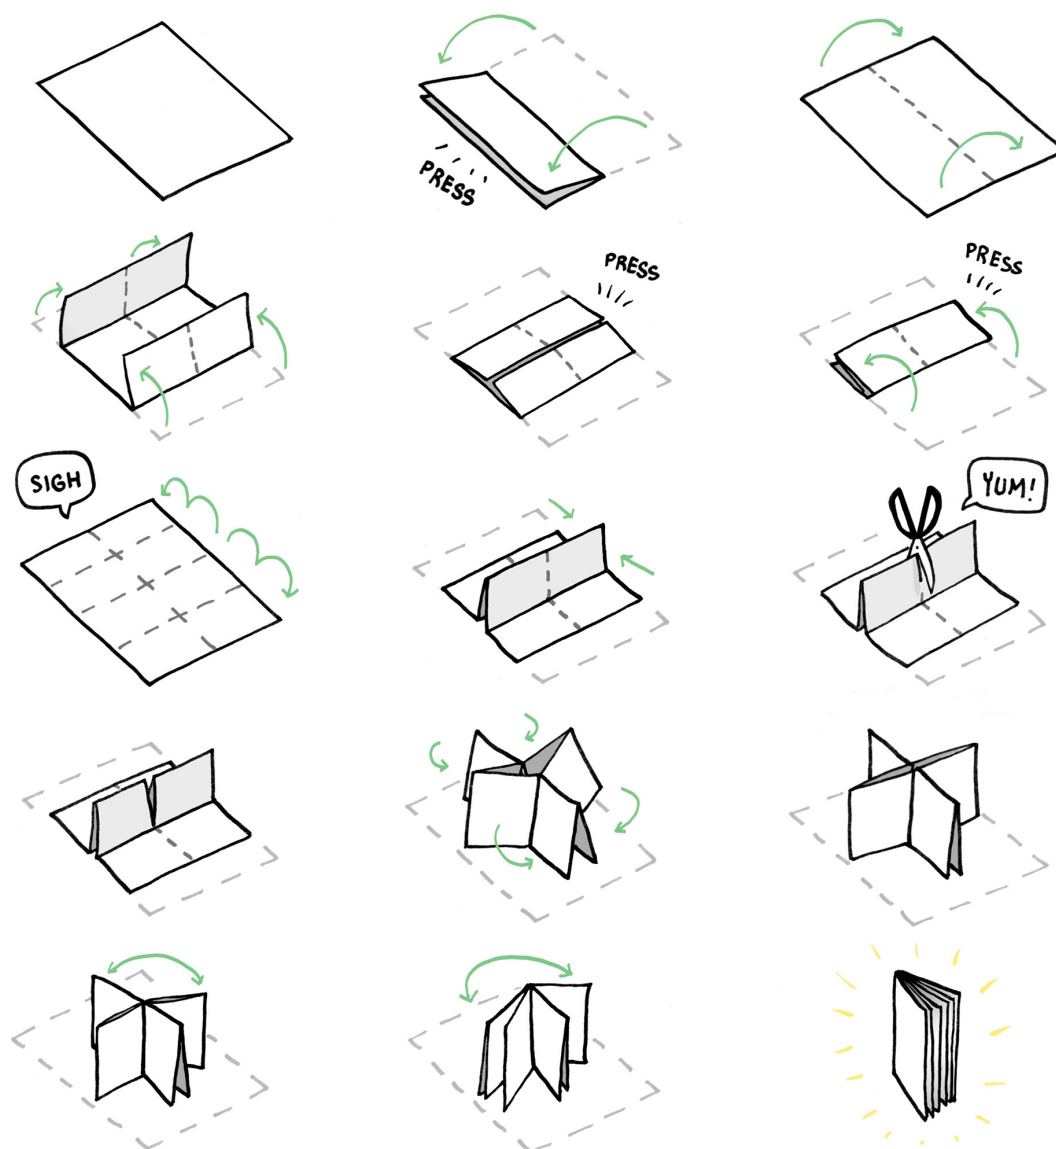

LCVA exhibitions and programs are made possible through the generous support of the Wells Fargo Foundation, the Walter J. Payne Foundation, Anne Carter & Walter R. Robbins, Jr. Foundation, the E.B. Duff Charitable Lead Annuity Trust, Southside Electric Cooperative, Walmart, Julie Kline Dixon and Guy Dixon, Navona & David Hart, Real Living Cornerstone, Helton House, Haley Auto Mall, The Woodland, Inc., Candice Jamison Dowdy '69 and Charles H. Dowdy III + Northwestern Mutual, Foster Fuels, Linda Arthur, Dominion Energy Charitable Foundation, Hotel Weyanoke, Karol and Philip Hull, Lisa & Tim Tharpe, and Longwood University Office of Alumni and Career Services.

What is a Zine?

A zine is a self-published work that is composed of text and/or images. Zines typically have a small circulation and are reproduced using only a photocopier. A zine can be about ANYTHING. Usually zines are about something the person is passionate about. They can be about music, movies, politics, anything that moves you!
